South shake off tenacious Wolves

South defeated Wiltshire in an absorbing encounter. The Wolves played very well in the first half, but their lack of experience and South's better teamwork in the second half saw them run out fairly comfortable 42 point winners.

For the young Wolves it was an encouraging pre-season experience against last year's premiers. But it was rather a pyrrhic victory with injuries to Nick Newman, Robin Newman, Martin Vaux and Shane Harford.

The Bulldogs kicked 10 goals to one and effectively stole the game in the closing stages of the third term.

Despite a determined fight-back from the Wolves which saw them get within 28 points, half-way through the quarter, South kicked away with goals to Hynes, Edmond and Maule to seal the game.

Best for South were their play-makers Pat Hynes and Craig Cook. They set up many forward moves and gave Derek Edmond a real up forward.

Lee Wiltcock, checked out closely and rebounded. Defenders Neville Newchurch, David Carter and South won their second game in a row with a comfortable 48 point win over Proprietary.

South showed some of the form which has been lacking in their efforts over recent weeks. Proprietary gave a disappointing performance with only two goals to three quarter time.

the second term with Props kicking two points. South re-established their superiority with a five goal third term where they were able to run the ball more fluently into attack with Pat Hynes and Robert Rozee setting up many moves.

Props kicked back in the final term with goals to South's Peter Trewartha gets the tap away from Roger Harris of Props. South won the match in easy fashion.
