The wooden spoon seems destined to head South for the wall of the Proprietary clubrooms.

South Augusta made short work of a side that does not know how to win. Props have lost the drive of yesteryear when they were a league power.

South won the toss and kicked to the highway end in perfect condi-well and his team mates were passing the ball accurately. Kuhlmann was doing the same at the other end but when he was more than 30 metres he wasted shots when he should have passed the ball.

He finished the term with four goals.

Risdon found South a tough nut s expected Risdon had to fight every of the way before breaking away in the quarter to run out 22 point winners South Augusta.

Aug 28 1986

the third quarter was the one in which on could have lost the game as both were going goal for goal with the lead ging six times before the Tigers went the last break with a four point lead.

the Tigers were off to an explosive start Anthony Good winning the ball out of e to post Risdon's first goal in just a minute. Three goals in the first five es caught South unawares and this went South any chance.

th had its chances in the second, but failed to make the most of their minutes. They could only manage wide from 10 shots at goal but even was only three points down at half Edley Marchioretti was also playing well and went on to notch four goals for the day.

Risdon was getting more possessions across half forward and they were more productive than they had been in recent weeks. Mark Aldridge was grabbing some big marks at centre half forward setting a direct route to goal for the Tigers.

South made a move early in the first term that worked to a certain degree. Ashleigh Dunkley went from centre half forward to full forward swapping with Greg Flanagan who was to change in ruck with Gary Kernahan.

Peter Osborne was proving a tower of strength in defence for Risdon as broke up attack after attack by South. He received good support from Theo Retas and David Pine.

South rover Claude Mafici was on the Simon Brown proved to be a thorn South's side as he was repeatedly hit the chest with some accurate foot pass from team mates further afield he finish with six goals for the day.

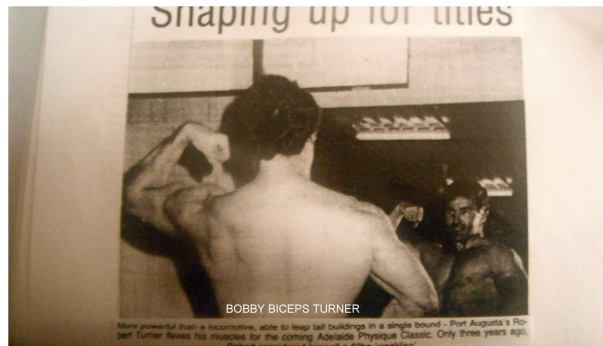

Ashleigh Dunkley had the opportuni to kick a bag but inaccuracy saw him sco only five goals from 11 shots.

Leading by four points at the la change Risdon still had a fight on its hand and needed to pull out all stops to bre away from a determined South.

Risdon was first to goal but Ashley Ha ris had been extremely well on the half fo ward line for South goaled soon after ci the deficit to only five points.

But then the Tigers cut lose scoring for majors in as many minutes and had stole the game right away from the Southerner Brian Shillabeer and Doug Rozee are t be recommended for their efforts in defe

Kym Arbon wins medal

Dashing centreman Kym Arbon stormed home to become the first Port player to win the Madigan Medal in SGL football.

Runner-up, West's Peter Robinson, got away to a flying start when the counting of first preferences began. He had three of those before anybody else had a chance but was soon overtaken by Proprietary's Gary Jamar who led momentarily.

Arbon also receives The Recorder Medal as the top vote winner in Port Pirie and Peter Robinson wins The Transcontinental Medal as Port Augusta's leading player.

Diminutive West rover Mick Foote again polled well picking up votes in eleven games.

Central's Mick Fuller surprised by outpointing teammate, and one of the favorites, John McAuliffe 25 votes to 20.

Proprietary's Gary Jamar, as expected, polled heavily to be his club's best with 27 votes.

There were several players who did not poll as well as expected and some failed to pick up a vote. Port's David Pearson did not win a vote and Central's Michael Arbon - who has won the medal in previous years - did not win a vote.
