Hynes confident his team can win

It has been 10 years since South Augusta last took a flag in the Spencer Gulf Football League and the boys will be hoping to make it two on Saturday.

South Augusta have played in and lost two grand finals since their 1983 win. They will be giving their best effort this weekend to make sure they don't lose the third.

Coach Pay Hynes said if his team played to the form they have been playing to in the last half of the football season, they could win the 1993 premiership.

He said South Augusta had a better team than when they lined up against Central Augusta in 1991, who were playing better together.

And although Mr Hynes said he believed...

South storm home to glo

By Gerard McConnell

The big green and white banner said it all. It was 'Time to break the drought'. But not for Port who had not won a premiership since 1970.

It was the mighty South Augusta Bulldogs that were to storm home in the last quarter to win their first SGL premiership for 10 years at Central Oval on Saturday.

Conditions were warm and windy, dirty and considering the live telecast of the Crows match on TV the crowd of almost 2000 would have been quite pleasing to the league.

Suspension 'astonishing' Page 27-29

THE suspension of Port's Jason Turner has angered many supporters of the Port Pirie club. This prompted one Port supporter to call for a review of the Port Pirie tribunal's composition. In a letter to The Recorder, Don Rafanelli said Turner's suspension thony Everett, was found guilty of a striking charge in the other semi-final, but only received a reprimand.

Turner was rubbed out for one match following Sunday's semi-final clash against the Lions. He had been reported on a striking charge. The suspension means Turner will miss next
